WHITE SOX PLAY SALT LAKE AT FORT DOUGLAS TODAY

"BASEBALL TODAY."

No two words in the English language are the cause of more real

At 3:30 o'clock this afternoon the Chicago White Sox and the Salt Lake team, led by Bert Margetts, will line up at the Fort Douglas diamond. Arrangements for the game were completed yesterday when Margetts received a wire from the Sox saying that the Fort Douglas grounds were "O. K." and to go ahead with the arrangements.

The veteran Doc White will appear in the box for the Sox and with him will be several of the veterans of the nine and some of Comiskey's fast youngsters, on Tannehill ss. whose work the eyes of the Chicago fans | Hahn are now turned.

The Sox, in their special train, pulled arough from Nevada last night, the deay making the calling off of the Ogden game necessary. They are all in good condition, and with a month's playing back of them, have been showing good form.

As this year will be the last of the White Sox training trips it will be the

A detail of soldiers will be on hand to patrol the field, which is in shape to make fast play possible.

The game promises to have many features. Aside from the regular crew of fans there will be the soldiers and a number of automobile and coaching parties have been arranged to take in the game.

Extra street cars will be on to handle the crowd.

A detail of soldiers will be on handle to go ancted with a local fans to see big leaguers in action. With the baseball outlook none too bright the chance to see a ball game today will be snapped up by the fans. For three days past anxious inquiries about the Sox have been coming in from many who have not forgotten that baseball is still played.

The probable line-up today will be:

Joy Miller, Michigan Football Star, Home But Memory Gone

Detroit, March 29 .- Joy Miller, the Michigan university football star, who disappeared last January, is home again, but home has not restored his memory of the past. He recollects nothing prior to the time he met in Chicago a party of young men bound for Manitoba to take up land. He cast his lot with them, but instead of trying to locate land, he wandered from one city to another in the

Not until yesterday, however, did he realize that his parents were more than someone he had met somewhere. He failed to recognize his sister. His ability to read has partially left him.

Mr. Miller would not permit anyone to interview his son. He plans to restore his memory by keeping the boy in company with relatives and friends whom he knew well. Specialists will be brought into consultation.

CHICAGO WINS FROM ST. LOUIS AT BILLIARDS

Chicago, March 29.—Chicago won the inter-city three-cushion billiard championship by defeating St. Louis in the first two games of the final series yesterday. St. Louis needed three of the four games to tie the locals and the games carded for this afternoon and tonight cannot affect the result.

The victory gives Chicago the silver trophy to add to the one won last year.

ENGLISH SHELLS ARE

Chicago, March 29.—Tom Jones, manager of Ad Wolgast, is one of the prominent authorities on pugilism who believes James J. Jeffries is going to win the big fight July 4, with Jack Johnson, negro champion. In speaking of the chances of the negro, Mr. Jones said yesterday:

"I connect figure where this negro has of the negro, Mr. Jones said yesterday:

"I cannot figure where this negro has a chance to defeat Jeff. I bave known Jeffries as long or longer than any man in the fight game. I have been a personal friend and have talked with him many times on this subject. I was at his home in Los Angeles just before Wolgast and I came east. For my part I consider Jeff in great physical condition right now. His wind is in good shape and with the careful training he is going through he will be almost the Jeffries of seven years ago when he enters the ring. Jeff is a fighter. He takes care of himself when he is training and he takes time enough in which to train so that he knows his condition will be good. I am going to back Jeffries to win.

The opposition to the continuance of the English-rigged boat proved too strong, however, and the English rig disappeared from the Yale boat soon after the Pennsylvania race last year, and it is now stated that there will be no effort to revive it this spring. Yale will have a new shell made by Ward, or Harlem, and probably one from the boathouse of Davy in Cambridge, but both will be along the lines of the usual Yale models.

FAST JUAREZ STABLE ARRIVES AT BUENA VISTA

Parker and Powell arrived at Buena Vista track Tuesday morning from Juarez, Mex., with their string of race horses. There are eight in the string, comprising Bonnie Prince Charlie, Cheswardine, Lomond, Biil Eaton, Fred Mulholland, Hidden Hand, Execute and the 2-year-old Ballela. They arrived in good shape and are a very promising stable, all of whom were frequent winners at Juarez, Bonnie Prince Charlie, Hidden Hand and Lomond being the best. There will be quite a number of shipments to Buena Vista from Juarez in the coming week.

On its face the match does not promise much in the way of additional glory for either boy. Should McFarland win he will be able to strut about or British soil honored as the conqueror of the English champlon, but on this side of the water his victory will have no special significance other than that Packy as a weltor-weight has been able to trounce a fast little lightweight who has been foolish enough to give away seven or eight pounds in fighting weight.
